Diocesan Prayer Cycle

1st October – 31st December 2026

Diocesan Prayer Cycle (DPC)

The Ven Simon Butler, Archdeacon of Winchester, writes...

I love autumn. After the long summer days of eating outside, hosting and entertaining friends and family, long dog walks, harvesting fields and hopefully some time away, I always find that I'm looking forward to autumn. The early morning mists that hang just a few feet above the fields around our house, the slowly changing colours of the natural world, and the dawning sense that a season is coming in which things can slow down a little, and in which energy can be replenished brings me a huge amount of joy.

In a fast paced and seemingly endlessly 'switched on' world, it is perhaps helpful to remember that there are seasons for different things: times of work and times of rest, times of sowing and reaping, times of joy and times of sorrow, and that this is fundamentally good. Embracing this rather than trying to fight it probably leads to a happier and more content existence.

I've often spoken at funerals on the well-known passage from Ecclesiastes which speaks of there being a 'time for everything' and this verse is in my mind as I write. Living differently in different seasons is good for us, the change is refreshing and interrupting the rhythm is important. Living with the grain of the season in which we find ourselves is wiser than fighting against it. This ancient wisdom of the writer of Ecclesiastes may be lost in mainstream culture but we do well to recall it.

As we follow this next cycle of prayer into autumn we are perhaps be conscious of times and seasons, the change that is happening all around us, and the inevitable movement from one season to another. As we see this unfolding perhaps we can also remind ourselves that even though the seasons change God's faithfulness remains steadfast and it is this that gives us confidence to live with the grain of change.
