DIOCESE of WINCHESTER

Diocesan Prayer Cycle

1st January – 31st March 2026

Diocesan Prayer Cycle (DPC)

As a diocesan ‘newbie’ I am conscious that the experience of newness can be wearying and unsettling even when it is also a gift and blessing. New home, new job, new people, new opportunities – all good things and there are accompanying challenges!

Sometimes the attraction of the familiar is precisely that it is known and comfortable, often requiring less effort and adaptation from us than embracing something that is unknown.

We stand at the beginning of a New Year, and alongside of us the God who, in scripture, often speaks of that which is new or of being made new. For example, in Lamentations (chapter 3) it is God’s love and mercy that is described as new, or refreshed, every morning, whilst Isaiah encourages that God is doing a new thing (Isaiah 43). For those who journey with God, newness is something to be expected and welcomed. New things from God and of God are deeply rooted in God’s character and therefore the newness can be trusted as life-giving and good. Yet that doesn’t always make it any less challenging for us: I note that the newness of freedom for those escaping slavery in Egypt took some adjusting to, and the first disciples found Jesus’ new approach distinctly unsettling.

As we follow this cycle of prayer, may we be mindful of the newness that God seeks to give to us this season even when it may take us beyond our comfort zones, and let’s also pray for that God-given new thing for the people and places we focus on in prayer during the months ahead.
